FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members of the FCC Family,

The end of the school year marks a period of transition for many young people and the beginning of summer. As we continue through our own period of transition here at FCC, the Search Committee has been diligently reviewing candidate profiles and engaging in discussion with ministers who may be interested in serving at FCC. This summer, we will welcome new church officers and a new deacon as well as deacons who are returning from sabbatical. We will install the new officers and our new deacon in late June, and they will begin their terms of service and leadership on July 1st. Let’s continue to remain in prayer for our minister, Merry, for our church officers, deacons, elders...and for one another. We are incredibly blessed to have so many wonderful individuals who generously share their gifts, energy and time as we strive to witness to God’s love in our community and our world.

Thank you...it is truly a privilege serving with each and every one of you.
Paul Semisch, FCC President

MERRYMENTS

On my first visit to FCC I met Jim Fred. The Search Committee had invited me to come attend worship, followed by meeting with them over lunch to be interviewed as a candidate for the interim position. As I watched and worshipped with the church that morning, I was trying to assess and learn what I could about the congregation, having a few questions in my mind, myself as well.

After the service, numerous members were gracious in greeting me. Without a doubt, the member whom I remembered the most from that Sunday was Jim Fred. Here's why.

As we were introduced, Jim Fred said to me, "If you have any questions about the church, I can probably help you." Taking him up on his offer, I asked my first question. I can't even remember what it was now, and it doesn't really matter.

What matters is after he answered my first question, I didn't get to "ask" any more questions because Jim Fred proceeded to not only answer all my unspoken questions, but went on to explain to me the many things he does around the church. He also shared some of his personal and family connections with the congregation. When he completed his amazing litany of service, my response to him was something to the effect of, "So, you're in charge here!" Please notice, that wasn't a question. Here's Why:

- Replaces pew pad registration forms. Brings signed forms to the church office for contacting visitors.
- Places prayer slips in the Bibles. The color of the slips change each quarter.
- Replaces wicks in the acolyte brass lighters.
- Replaces wicks in communion table candles/polishes outer candle, base, and lip.
- Takes requested food of the month to Christian Social Services.
- Back Pack Program. Picks up and delivers food to Clearfield and McBrayer Elementary Schools.
- Straightens the chairs in the Fellowship Hall.
- Removes bulletins from sanctuary after worship service.
- Welcomes visitors and invites them to come back.
- Serves as a permanent substitute Deacon.
- Turns out lights, checks washrooms, and locks doors after worship service.
- Tidies up around the grounds in the flower garden.
- Places special offering envelopes and literature in the pews on designated Sundays.
- Removes special offering envelopes and literature after the service.
- Replaces candy in the candy dishes and donates candy also.
- Shops for one family during the Christmas Outreach ministry.
- Assists any elderly person or parents with babies, down the main steps.

YOUTH GROUP

The Youth worked very hard on our Earth Day Labyrinth Clean-up project. They straightened the paths, raked the gravel, and picked weeds. The Labyrinth looks beautiful thanks to the hard work of the Garden Committee and the Youth! We also looked at scripture to find direction on why it is important to be good stewards of our earth. BIG thanks to Leeann Akers and Jon Stigall for helping with the meeting this month. Also, thanks to Dianna Fischer, Kristi Skaggs, and Brenda Combs for providing the meal.

Our Youth Sunday will take place on Sunday, May 15th. We have invited the youth from Faith Presbyterian to join us in worship that day so we might have some visitors at our service. They are working very hard to prepare so please plan to attend the service and support them.

We have had a great year full of fellowship, service, and growth. To wrap-up the school year, we are planning a cookout and the date will be emailed to parents when plans have been finalized. The youth will be taking their regularly scheduled “summer break” from monthly meetings during the months of June and July. We will resume monthly meetings in August when school begins.

Thank you to Mark Etherton for teaching Children’s Church in April. Also, thank you to everyone who has volunteered to teach throughout the summer! If you would like to help teach Children’s Church, you can sign up on the bulletin board. The months of August through December are still open.

Peace and Blessings, Mary Claire Williams and Chris Prichard, FCC Co-Youth Directors

CHOIR and BELL CHOIR NOTES

The choir is working on some wonderful pieces for the next two weeks after which we will be going on our summer hiatus. During the summer we will have several guest musicians providing special music for us. I will have more information about that in the next newsletter.

The bell choir has been on a month long break but will be returning to practices in May and will be providing music for services several times over the summer as well.

Psalm 33: 1 - 3...Sing for joy in the LORD, O you righteous ones; Praise is becoming to the upright. Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre; Sing praises to Him with a harp of ten strings. Sing to Him a new song; Play skillfully with a shout of joy.

Genny Jenkins, Choir Director
